

The story of CMU is worth telling and celebrating! This Annual Report insert draws together parts of that story for CMU’s many alumni, donors, and friends. In our time all Canadian universities are facing real challenges—CMU among them. Still, we continue to operate in the black (with no accumulated operating deficit), and the number of people who see CMU as a vibrant success story is ever increasing. Most importantly, we are grateful to God for the ongoing stream of students whose lives are transformed through their CMU experience—and many pockets of the church and the world around us through their witness. We trust that this Annual Report deepens your awareness of, and engagement with, a compelling university project!

Update on Capital Project

In January, 2013 CMU's Board of Governors unanimously agreed to move ahead with construction of the CMU Library & Learning Commons and Bridge in 2013. The Board's decision was prompted in part by positive momentum in fundraising. As of May 1, gifts and pledges committed totalled $9.3 million, an indication of the support for this important campus addition.

The project architects (ft3) completed final drawings on May 6. The building permit process is well underway and the project is presently being tendered through the builder, Concord Projects Ltd. Construction is anticipated to begin this summer.

CMU is deeply appreciative of the generosity of so many donors and the excellent leadership of our CONNECT Campaign cabinet members—Chair Elmer Hildebrand, Art DeFehr, Philipp R. Ens, Bill Fast, Janice Filmon, Bert Friesen, Charles Loewen, Jake Rempel, and Tamara Roehr.

This Library & Learning Commons, at the heart of CMU's Shaftesbury campus, will generate vital resources and services, study and collaborative spaces, and welcome the constituency and broader community into the life of the University. The project integrates CMU's Bookstore with Mennonite Church Canada's Resource Centre, and includes a café and a pedestrian bridge to span Grant Avenue, connecting the new library to CMU's south side campus and providing safe passage for the CMU University community.
